

Lebanon Dismantles a Ring of Recruiters for the Islamic State

Beirut, Apr 1 (RHC) The security in Lebanon disrupted a ring of four nationals and one Syrian engaged in recruiting, including minors, to work for the terrorist organization Islamic State.

Lebanese official sources said the recruiters confessed their membership in the fundamentalist group, and that they recruited suiciders to attack the national Armed Forces and the Police.

The clean up operation included a network of sex slaves traffickers, that was active from the beginning of the conflict in neighboring Syria, and rescued 75 women, the majority were Syrian, that endured beatings, rape and had traces of mutilations.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/89165-lebanon-dismantles-a-ring-of-recruiters-for-the-islamic-state>

Radio Habana Cuba