

Revolution Leader Fidel Castro Pays Tribute to Vilma Espín on Her 86th Birthday Anniversary

Havana, April 8 (RHC)-- Cuba leader Fidel Castro paid tribute on Thursday to late revolutionary leader Vilma Espín, on her 86th birthday anniversary.

Fidel Castro spoke extensively about Vilma's life and work during a meeting with students and professors at a school complex bearing her name in the Havana municipality of Playa.

Fidel said had Vilma lived, she would have been proud to see the realization of many of her dreams, especially those related to the role of women as protagonists in Cuban society.
