

Impeachment Debate Begins in Brazil

Brasilia, April 15 (RHC-teleSUR)-- The lower house of the National Congress of Brazil has begun a three-day debate on whether to impeach President Dilma Rousseff, who is accused by opponents of breaking fiscal laws.

Lawmakers in favor of dismissing the president chanted "Dilma out" at the beginning of the debate, which began Friday morning and is scheduled to end with a vote Sunday night.

It is likely the process will reach the Senate, which will decide whether to remove Rousseff from office.
