

Vice President Ricardo Cabrisas Highlights Cooperation Relations between Russia and Cuba

Havana, June 18 (RHC)-- Vice President Ricardo Cabrisas pointed to what he described as a huge potential for joint projects between his country and Russia in the context of the ongoing process to update Cuba's economic model.

Addressing a panel discussion of the 20th St. Petersburg International Economic Forum dedicated to Russia's relations with Latin America and the Caribbean, Cabrisas pointed to the effective participation of Russian firms in the Cuban economy. He mentioned existing joint projects in sectors like energy, the steel industry, transport and education, among others.
