

Cuban Foreign Minister on Official Visit to Greece

Athens, April 21 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez has arrived in Greece for an official visit. The trip seeks to strengthen the already good relations existing between Havana and Athens and expand bilateral ties in general.

During his stay in Athens, Foreign Minister Rodríguez will hold official talks with his Greek counterpart, Nikos Kotzias, and other government leaders.

Bruno Rodríguez arrived in Greece after having visited Spain and Portugal as part of his tour of Europe.
