

Cuba's First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs Begins Working Visit to Canada

Havana, November 28 (RHC-Minrex)-- The First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, Marcelino Medina González, will begin a working visit to Canada tomorrow, Wednesday, accompanied by a delegation from the Cuban Foreign Ministry.

The First Deputy Minister will head the bilateral political dialogue with the Canadian Foreign Ministry and will be received by high-level personalities from the government and the Foreign Ministry, with whom he will exchange topics of common interest on the bilateral agenda and on the international scene.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/148725-cubas-first-deputy-minister-of-foreign-affairs-begins-working-visit-to-canada>

Radio Habana Cuba