

Cuba and Ecuador sign agreement on Higher Education

CUBA

ECUADOR

Havana, Feb 16 (RHC)-- Cuba and Ecuador have signed an agreement in the field of higher education that provides for strengthened academic cooperation.

The agreement, in the framework of the 11th International Conference on Higher Education 'Universidad 2018', provides for mutual recognition of professional diplomas and the homologation of Higher Education qualifications.

Thursday's ceremony was presided over by Cuba's Higher Education Minister Jose Ramon Saborido and Augusto Barreras, Ecuadorian Secretary for Higher Education, Science and Technology.

The Cuban official told ACN news agency that the agreement covers all areas of higher education, among them academic and scientific exchange, the training of human resources, the realization of joint projects, undergraduate and postgraduate courses.

He further stated that it contemplates the involvement of all Cuban universities and colleges, and all Ecuadorian universities, whether public or private.

Radio Habana Cuba