

President Raul Castro Holds Talks with Prime Minister of Namibia

Havana, February 28 (RHC) Cuban president Raul Castro held talks on Thursday with Namibia's Prime Minister Hage Geingob, who is on an official visit to Cuba. According to an official release, the two leaders exchanged views on the excellent bilateral relations between their countries and they reiterated their willingness to further strengthen economic and cooperation links. They also addressed issues of international interest.

The meeting was attended by Cuban first vice-president Miguel Diaz-Canel, who had previously met with the Namibian Premier. Also attending was Cuban foreign minister Bruno Rodriguez.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/15934-president-raul-castro-holds-talks-with-prime-minister-of-namibia>

Radio Habana Cuba