

First of May International Brigade arrives in Cuba

Havana, April 23 (RHC)-- The First of May Solidarity with Cuba Brigade arrived Monday in Havana to participate in activities for International Workers' Day.

The members of the Caravan, from 32 countries, will also take part in agricultural work, meet with union leaders and workers, and visit educational, historical and cultural centers in the provinces of Havana, Villa Clara, Camagüey and Artemisa.

More than 300 activists, mainly from the United States and Canada will stay at the Julio Antonio Mella International Camp in Caimito, located on the outskirts of the Cuban capital.
