

Cuban Council of Ministers meeting addresses important economic and social issues

Havana, April 27 (RHC)-- During a meeting led by Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel, the Council of Ministers addressed important issues of current economic and social concern in the country.

The agenda of the meeting, held on Wednesday, included the impact of irregularities in foreign trade operations, overdue accounts payable and receivable, and results from the latest national internal accounting audit.

Other issues that were analyzed by the Council of Ministers included the proposed placement plan for this year's university graduates, progress on the comprehensive program to address violations of zoning and land use regulations, as well the 2018 Economic Plan's performance through the month of March.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/160979-cuban-council-of-ministers-meeting-addresses-important-economic-and-social-issues>

Radio Habana Cuba