

Spanish hotel chain successfully operates in Eastern Cuba

Havana, June 30 (RHC)-- The Spanish Company Iberostar has been operating since last March in tourist facilities in the eastern province of Holguin, managing several hotels and promoting their commercialization worldwide.

Ana Beatriz Olaio, Iberostar Oriente Operations representative told Cuban News Agency that the company's mission is to provide quality services in the best tourist destinations in the region with a wide variety of offers.

She stressed that more than 1,500 tourists have visited the town of Gibara since April, a figure that contributes to the company's purpose to turn this destination into an important tourist attraction, taking advantage of its cultural and natural potential.

Olaio also highlighted the projections of the Spanish corporation to contribute to the advancement of the Cuban tourism industry, which includes among its main actions in the province the Iberostar Holguin and Albatros hotels, located in the resorts of Pesquero and Guardalavaca, respectively.

Iberostar is a Spanish chain with more than a hundred hotels distributed all over the world, with a special presence in the Caribbean region, with hotels in the Dominican Republic and Cuba.
