

Cuban President arrives in Jamaica to attend CARICOM conference

Montego Bay, July 5 (RHC)-- The president of the Councils of State and Ministers of Cuba, Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez, arrived on Thursday morning in Montego Bay, Jamaica, where he will attend the 39th Regular Meeting of the Conference of Heads of Government of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM).

Díaz Canel's visit responds to an invitation of CARICOM's current chairman, Jamaica's Prime Minister, Honorable Andrew Holness.

Upon his arrival, the Cuban president was welcomed at Montego Bay's airport, by the president of the Jamaican Senate, Thomas Tavares-Finson.

Accompanying Díaz-Canel in his visit to the neighboring island are Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla; Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Rogelio Sierra Díaz; and Cuban Ambassador to Kingston, Inés Fors Fernández.

This is the second time that Díaz Canel makes a trip abroad since he took office last April 19th.

Cuba and CARICOM member states share common historical roots, liberation struggles and mutual solidarity.
