

Jared Kushner helped Saudi crown prince “weather the storm” after Khashoggi murder

Washington, December 11 (RHC)-- The New York Times is reporting that U.S. President Donald Trump's adviser and son-in-law Jared Kushner circumvented White House protocol by having private conversations with Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman after the murder of Saudi journalist Jamal Khashoggi by Saudi hit men on October 2nd.

Kushner reportedly advised the crown prince on how to “weather the storm.” Trump and a number of top White House officials have refused to acknowledge bin Salman's involvement in the murder despite the CIA concluding with “high confidence” that he was directly responsible for ordering the killing.

CNN is reporting Khashoggi repeatedly said “I can't breathe” during his final moments alive in the Saudi Consulate in Istanbul.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/178647-jared-kushner-helped-saudi-crown-prince-weather-the-storm-after-khashoggi-murder>

Radio Habana Cuba