

Cuban foreign minister affirms the country will continue promoting world peace and multilateralism

Havana, December 26 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez said the country will continue promoting and defending world peace and multilateralism in 2019. In a message posted on his twitter account, Rodríguez said: in 2019, #Cuba will continue its defense of #peace, multilateralism and sovereign equity of all states.

Minister Bruno Rodríguez also confirmed Cuba's participation in the 18th Summit of the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries (NAM), set for April in Baku, Azerbaijan.

He underscored that the 25th session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 25) to the UNFCCC is expected to take place from November 11-22 2019.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/179733-cuban-foreign-minister-affirms-the-country-will-continue-promoting-world-peace-and-multilateralism>

Radio Habana Cuba