

Cuban foreign minister ratifies Cuba's solidarity with Nicaragua

Havana, January 7 (RHC)-- Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez on Sunday reaffirmed Cuba's support for the Nicaraguan Government led by President Daniel Ortega.

Rodríguez also rejected 'the interventionist threats and actions against that brother country,' he posted on his Twitter account. We express our solidarity with and support for Nicaragua and its Government headed by Commander Daniel Ortega, and we reject the interventionist threats and actions against that brother country, he wrote at @BrunoRguezP.

The Nicaraguan Government has called on several occasions the Organization of American States and foreign governments not to meddle in its internal affairs and to cease the attempts to destabilize the Sandinista Revolution.
