Cuban foreign minister highlights good relations with the European Union

Havana, January 16 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez says Cuba's relations with the European Union and its member states are developing favorably on the basis of mutual respect.

"Relations between #Cuba and the #EU and its member States have developed positively, based on mutual respect.   We built spaces of dialogue and cooperation and emphasized our commonalities over our differences in order to develop stable and long lasting relations. | #CubaEU, " Rodriguez twitted.

He also highlighted the first sessions of the Cuba-European Union Joint Council.   "In 2018, we held the first working sessions of the Joint Council as well as the structural dialogues on human rights and unilateral coercive measures. | #CubaEU," twetted the Cuban foreign minister.

Radio Habana Cuba