

Cuban President congratulates singer Omara Portuondo

Havana, May 24 (RHC)—Cuban President, Miguel Díaz-Canel, has congratulated Omara Portuondo, to whom the Japanese government granted the Order of the Rising Sun, Golden Rays with Rosette. In his Twitter account, the Cuban President wrote: 'Japanese government grants Omara Portuondo, the Diva of the Buena Vista Social Club, the Order of the Rising Sun, Golden Rays with Rosette,' adding 'Congratulations Maestra'.

The 'Diva del Buena Vista Social Club', as Portuondo is known worldwide, contributed with her art to strengthen the cultural bonds between the Japanese and Cuban peoples, despite the geographic distance separating the two countries. The Order of the Rising Sun, Golden Rays with Rosette, was established by Emperor Meiji, Mutsu-Hito, on April 10, 1875, and is the second top order in Japan. Such distinction is granted to recognize the special military and civil services rendered to Japan, and as of 1981 it can be conferred upon foreigners with a diploma signed by the Emperor.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/cultura/191668-cuban-president-congratulates-singer-omara-portuondo>

Radio Habana Cuba