

Cuban Disc Throw athlete sets U-20 Pan-Am record

Havana, July 22 (RHC) – Cuban disc thrower Melany del Pilar Matheus launched the disc to 59,53 meters Sunday, to set a new record in the discipline, in the U-20 Pan-American Athletics Championship in San Jose, Costa Rica.

Matheus's throw was the first record set in this competition and it allowed her to get the title, leaving Canadian Trinity Tutti (54,87) with the silver medal, and her teammate Silinda Oneisi Morales (54,75) in the third place.

Minutes after finishing the event Matheus, who becomes the 5th Cuban girl to win a title in Disc Throw in U-20 Pan-Am games, told Prensa Latina that competition was exciting, ``I came to give everything, and there you see the result, though I would have liked it to fly over 60 m``.
