

Bronzed Gymnastics for Cuba

Lima, August 1 (RHC) – Young Gymnastics athletes Alejandro de la Cruz, in Men's Vault, and Huber Godoy, in Men's Horizontal Bar, gave Cuba two epic bronzed medals in the Gymnastics final day of competition in the Lima 2019 Pan-Am Games.

20-year old Pinar del Rio born Alejandro de la Cruz, finished 3rd in the Men's Vault with a score average of 14.183 points in two jumps (14.400 and 13.966), to end up behind Dominican Audrys Nin (gold with 14.416) and Guatemalan Jorge Vega (silver with 14.383).

“It is a great result. This was his first high-level international competition. His medal was not in the plans, but he competed with a lot of dedication and effectiveness”, declared to Radio Habana Cuba Pedro Pablo Barrios, National Gymnastics Commissioner.

Huber Godoy, who has recently turned 21 last July 29, achieved a brilliant performance in the Horizontal Bar to also reach the bronze medal, with 14.200 points, falling behind Brazilians Carlos Barreto (14.566) and Artur Mariano (14.533).

After this Wednesday's performances, Artistic Gymnastics has given to Cuba three medals, since Yesenia Ferrera won a silver medal in Women's Vault this Tuesday.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/197791-bronzed-gymnastics-for-cuba>

Radio Habana Cuba