

Boeing ousts top executive over fatal plane crashes

Chicago, October 24 (RHC)-- Boeing has ousted one of its top executives, marking the first high-level management change since the fatal crashes of two 737 Max jets that combined killed 346 people. The ousted executive, Kevin McAllister, had led Boeing's commercial airplanes division.

The plane crashes in Indonesia and Ethiopia have provoked global outrage and sparked questions about the Trump administration's close ties to Boeing.

Earlier, Boeing announced it will begin paying out $50 million in financial assistance to the families of the victims of the two crashes.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/205740-boeing-ousts-top-executive-over-fatal-plane-crashes>

Radio Habana Cuba