

Pentagon awards Microsoft a $10 billion contract

Washington, October 28 (RHC)-- The Pentagon has awarded Microsoft a $10 billion technology contract to work on the military's cloud computing systems, beating out its competitors, including Amazon.

President Donald Trump reportedly told former Defense Secretary James Mattis to "screw Amazon" out of receiving the contract, according to a new book. Trump has repeatedly attacked Amazon CEO Jeff Bezos, who also owns the Washington Post.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/206091-pentagon-awards-microsoft-a-10-billion-contract>

Radio Habana Cuba