

China, Cuba satisfied by progress of bilateral relations

Beijing, October 31 (RHC)-- Cuba and China on Wednesday expressed satisfaction for the uninterrupted, fluid, and solid progress of their bilateral ties, which will mark 60 years in 2020.

Foreign Minister Wang Yi acknowledged the work done by the outgoing Cuban ambassador to China Miguel Angel Ramirez in the promotion of strategic partnership and collaboration, as well as the friendship between the two states.

In turn, Ramirez emphasized that Havana and Beijing ties are special and have a historical nature.

The Chinese minister spoke on Wednesday with the ambassador as part of the farewell ceremony at the end of his mission as Cuban ambassador to the Asian nation.

Zheng Zeguang, Vice Foreign Minister in charge of Latin American and Caribbean affairs, also reviewed the status of the bilateral ties with Ramirez.

Radio Habana Cuba