Vice President of European Parliament Receives Cuban Medal

Havana, April 24 (RHC) – In Havana on Wednesday, Miguel Angel Martinez, Vice President of the European Parliament, received the Friendship Medal given by the Cuban Council of State to international personalities with a active solidarity stance towards the country.

Ana Maria Mari Machado, Vice President of the National Assembly of the People's Power, presented Martinez with the medal in a ceremony held at the Jose Marti Memorial in the presence of numerous guests, among them relatives of the Cuban anti-terrorists condemned to long sentences in the United States.

The acknowledgement is given by the Council of State at the request of the Cuban Institute for Friendship with the Peoples (ICAP).

ICAP president, Kenia Serrano, highlighted the outstanding work of Martinez in favor of the Cuban fighters arrested in the United States, and against Washington's economic, financial and commercial blockade against the Caribbean nation.
