

CTC general secretary highlights international trade union support for the Cuban Revolution

Havana, April 23 (RHC)-- The General Secretary of the Confederation of Cuban Workers -- Central de Trabajadores de Cuba (CTC) -- Ulises Guilarte, highlighted the broad expression of solidarity with the Cuban Revolution by trade unions around the world.

The response has been broad, multifactorial and, above all, of a dimension of maximum gratitude for what Cuba has done over these 60 years in terms of solidarity, he stressed in an exclusive interview with Prensa Latina.

The CTC leader gave as an example the Italian labor union that, on behalf of its members, expressed its appreciation for the role played by the Cuban medical brigades that collaborate with that country in the fight against the coronavirus pandemic.

"We also have the support of trade union organizations from Venezuela, Syria and China, which appreciate and recognize the 'extraordinary humanist and altruistic role of the Internationalist Health Contingent Henry Reeve, created by the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro.'"

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/220656-ctc-general-secretary-highlights-international-trade-union-support-for-the-cuban-revolution>

Radio Habana Cuba