

Cuban president to participate in ALBA-TCP High Level Conference on Economy, Finance and Trade

Havana, June 9 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez will participate in the "High Level Conference on Economy, Finance and Trade in the Framework of COVID-19" -- convened by the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of America - People's Trade Agreement (ALBA-TCP).

The event, which will be held virtually on Wednesday, June 10th, has been promoted by the President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolás Maduro Moros.

This space will be conducive to discuss the complex global economic situation as a result of COVID-19, in order to establish criteria and proposals to face regional and global economic challenges by ALBA-TCP.
