

Michael Cohen's new book recounts Donald Trump's racist diatribes

Image not found or type unknown

"Disloyal: A Memoir" -- new book by Michael Cohen. (Photo: Internet)

New York, September 10 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump's former personal lawyer and fixer Michael Cohen has released his tell-all book titled "Disloyal: A Memoir," describing Trump as a mob boss driven by deep-seated racism. Cohen quotes Trump as saying: "Tell me one country run by a Black person that isn't a shithole."

Cohen goes on to describe a racist diatribe by Trump after the death of South Africa's former President Nelson Mandela in 2013. Trump reportedly said: "Mandela fucked the whole country up. Now it's a shithole. Fuck Mandela." And Trump added: "Mandela was no leader."

Michael Cohen also writes that Trump was so consumed by his hatred of President Barack Obama that he hired a “Faux-Bama” to record a video in which Trump belittles the fake Obama and fires him like a contestant on Trump’s former reality TV show, “The Apprentice.”

Michael Cohen spoke with NBC News, saying: “I believe that his hatred for Barack Obama just basically starts with the fact that he’s Black and that he was the first Black president in this country.”

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/233764-michael-cohens-new-book-recounts-donald-trumps-racist-diatribes>

Radio Habana Cuba