Cuba has 45 qualifiers for the 2020 Tokyo Olympics

Havana, April 20 (RHC) -- The recent qualification of the Cuban pímponists Jorge Moises Campos and Daniela Fonseca, and the runner Roxana Gomez, raised to 45 the number of Cubans assured for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.

In extremely adverse conditions, due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the U.S. blockade of the island, Cuban sports continues to add members to its athletic embassy, committed to a decent performance in the Japanese capital.

In the coming weeks, we will know the contributions of other sports, namely boxing, judo, weightlifting, baseball, beach volleyball, swimming, diving, fencing, track and field, etc.

For the moment, JIT (a Cuban sports publication) confirms a list of qualifiers in which there are some names that could be varied until the final registration, taking into account that their quotas were earned for the country and not for the person.

The Tokyo Olympic Games will be held from July 23 to August 8, although the competitions of some sports will start on the 21st.
