

Guerrilla ELN Open to Learning from FARC-EP Peace Process

Bogota, June 24 (PL-RHC), -- The National Liberation Army (ELN) has asserted that it is open to learning from the peace process between the Government and the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia-People's Army (FARC-EP) and that it is willing to add new aspects.

On June 10, ELN and the Government announced the beginning of an exploratory stage of talks for a possible peace process with an agenda focused on the victims and the participation of society, as well as other issues not defined yet.

"Many experts describe this period underway in Colombia to seek peace as historic. Such a view commits us to our people, to our brother nations and the international community, a commitment that we expect to meet sparing no efforts", said ELN in a communique posted on the Internet.

Since 2013, ELN, led by Commander Nicolas Rodriguez, asserted that it was ready to hold talks with President Juan Manuel Santos, and also that a delegation to represent them in those possible peace negotiations had been made up.
