

Cuban Vice President Heads Delegation to African Summit

Havana, June 25 (RHC) -- Cuban Vice President Salvador Valdes Mesa is heading the Cuban delegation to the 23rd Summit of the African Union, taking place June 26th and 27th in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea.

According to this morning's edition of Granma newspaper, Valdes Mesa made an official visit to Gabon, where he was welcomed by President Ali Bongo and by Prime Minister Daniel Ona Ondo. He also met with other local government officials.

During his current tour of several African nations, the Cuban vice president will also pay an official visit to the Republic of Congo.

The Cuban delegation is made up of the director for Sub-Saharan Africa at the Cuban Foreign Ministry, Angel Villa Hernandez.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/26715-cuban-vice-president-heads-delegation-to-african-summit>

Radio Habana Cuba