

Cuba's baseball team for the Junior Pan American Games in Colombia announced

Image not found or type unknown

Guillermo Garcia

Havana, November 15 (RHC)-- Two of Cuba's top baseball prospects, pitcher Frank Abel Alvarez and starter Guillermo Garcia, are leading the Cuban team to the First Junior Pan American Games in Cali-Valle, Colombia.

In addition to Frank Abel and Guillermo Garcia, other stars who recently participated in the U-23 world championship in Mexico and now made the team are catcher Andrys Perez and pitcher Naikel Cruz.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/277154-cubas-baseball-team-for-the-junior-pan-american-games-in-colombia-announced>

Radio Habana Cuba