

Vietnamese company delivers donation to help Matanzas

Image not found or type unknown

Havana, August 19 (RHC)--The branch of the Vietnamese company Thai Binh Global Investment Corporation operating in the Mariel Special Development Zone (ZEDM) delivered a donation to contribute to the recovery efforts of the Matanzas Industrial Zone and to support the victims of the fire.

Déborah Rivas Saavedra, Vice Minister of Foreign Trade and Investment, thanked Thai Binh on behalf of the Cuban Government, Party, and people for donating 100 thousand US dollars, 53 thousand units of diapers, and foodstuffs such as milk, rice, and fruit juice.

She also stressed the offers of help received from multiple institutions such as the Union of Vietnam Friendship Organizations and the Vietnam Women's Union.

We are also grateful for the efforts of former Vietnamese graduates in Cuba, who, together with the Vietnam-Cuba Friendship Association, launched the Support Cuba Campaign and raised more than 40,000 dollars in one week, she said.

Presiding over the event were Le Thanh Tung, ambassador of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam in Cuba, Vi Nguyen Phuong, general director of the ZEDM branch, along with other officials and managers of Thai Binh Global Investment Corporation and Thai Binh Green Power Investment Corporation.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/297092-vietnamese-company-delivers-donation-to-help-matanzas>

Radio Habana Cuba