Messi and Cristiano in Riyadh

Havana, January 21 (PL) - Paris Saint-Germain (PSG) defeated the Riyadh Season team 5-4 in Riyadh, United Arab Emirates, a match in which the legendary Cristiano Ronaldo, with a brace, and Lionel Messi scored.

The match did not disappoint the tens of thousands of people in attendance, largely motivated by being eyewitnesses to the likely final duel between the two players who have dominated soccer in the last 15 years.

PSG lined up with the trident of Messi, Kylian Mbappé-Neymar.

It was beautiful to see Messi (35 years old) and Cristiano (37), two of the greatest players of all time, face each other again on the pitch.

The greeting between the two stars will go down in history, an honor that Riyadh will always be able to boast of, even though it is not a renowned soccer venue.
