Organizations and personalities demand declaration of emergency for crime in Haiti

Havana, March 28 (RHC) Social organizations and political personalities denounced that the Haitian State is losing control of the territory and demanded that it declare a state of emergency in the areas controlled today by gangs.

Among the signatories are the Collective of December 4, Sant Karl Lévèque, the Haitian Council of Lawyer Arnel Rémy, general coordinator of the Collective of Lawyers for the Defense of Human Rights. According to the UN, violence has worsened since the assassination of the president, Jovenel Moïse. According to Rémy, as part of the signatories, "The State is losing control of Haitian territory, there is a state of emergency. He points to the "indifference of the Haitian State" in the fight against insecurity in the country, and for its part, the Collective of December 4, 2013 calls for the exceptional creation of a Crisis Staff, with the aim of restoring order and security in the country.
