Havana, July 16 (RHC)-- This Sunday Cuadrando la Caja will address the issue of subsidies in Cuba, asking: Is it possible to have a society with social justice and that does not subsidize practically all products, goods and people? Why subsidize people and not products? Is it possible to change the mentality that always and in all circumstances the State will provide?

On this program, we have the participation of MsC. Belkis Delgado Cáceres, Director of Social Prevention, MTSS, Dr.C. José Carlos del Toro Ríos, Director of Financial and Accounting Research, MFP and Mr. Erik Ridel González Remón, Researcher on Inequality and Multidimensional Vulnerability, INIE.

If you are interested in the topic, you can see more information by going to Facebook or YouTube. The first transmissison of this program will be on Sunday, July 16th at 7 p.m., local time, on Canal Caribe.
