

Turkish president Recep Tayyip Erdogan says Netanyahu is The Butcher of Gaza and must be tried for war crimes

Image not found or type unknown

Ankara, December 2 (RHC)-- Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan has reiterated that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, whom he called “the Butcher of Gaza,” must be tried in the International Criminal Court (ICC) for committing war crimes in the besieged Palestinian territory.

The Turkish leader once again urged the court in The Hague to ensure accountability for Netanyahu, who has “already written his name in history as the butcher of Gaza.” He said the Netanyahu regime’s massacre in Gaza is etched in history as a “black stain.”

"This is state terrorism. We cannot stay silent against this state terrorism."

The Turkish president has repeatedly called for the occupying regime to be held accountable for war crimes in the Gaza Strip since Tel Aviv waged its war on the populated Palestinian territory almost two months ago.

"The occupation (forces) continues to expand its bombing of civilians after the end of the humanitarian pause," the ministry said, referring to a week-long ceasefire that expired on Friday.

Referring to the resumption of Israel’s attacks on Gaza, Erdogan said that the chance for peace in the Palestinian territory was lost for now due to “Israel's uncompromising approach.” "We have always emphasized that we are in favor of a permanent ceasefire rather than a humanitarian break."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/341090-turkish-president-recep-tayyip-erdogan-says-netanyahu-is-the-butcher-of-gaza-and-must-be-tried-for-war-crimes>

Radio Habana Cuba