Athens, January 7 (RHC)-- Crowds of demonstrators rallied outside the Greek parliament building in Athens on Saturday in a show of solidarity with the people of Palestine amid the continued Israeli bombardment of the Gaza Strip.

Footage shows protesters waving Palestinian flags and carrying large banners while chanting slogans such as: "Palestine will never die," "Freedom in Palestine, Free Palestine," and "Isolate Israel," as they demanded an immediate and lasting ceasefire in the besieged territory.

The protest in Athens came as widespread protests have erupted across Europe against Israel's genocidal war in Gaza.
