

University of Southern California students rally to demand commencement speech by Valedictorian Asna Tabassum be reinstated

Image not found or type unknown

Los Angeles, April 19 (RHC)-- Massive crowds of students at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles protested USC's cancellation of valedictorian Asna Tabassum's graduation speech, chanting "Let her speak!"

Student leader Katya Urban told reporters: "It feels really important, especially right now, for the Jewish voice at USC, the anti-Zionist Jewish voice at USC, to be very loud and very present. So we're here just to support Asna and to support free speech and to hold USC accountable."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/352623-university-of-southern-california-students-rally-to-demand-commencement-speech-by-valedictorian-asna-tabassum-be-reinstated>

Radio Habana Cuba