

Details on the 9th Havana Triathlon Havana will be announced this Saturday

Image not found or type unknown

This competition was organized as a tribute to sports and culture, emphasizing the importance of promoting healthy lifestyles, gender equity, and environmental sustainability

Havana, Feb 15 (RHC) The final details of the 9th Havana Triathlon will be disclosed today at a press conference at the Hotel Nacional in the capital.

The competition, internationally referred to as the World Triathlon, will be held at the Marina Hemingway on Sunday.

Over the course of its eight previous editions, the Havana Triathlon has undergone a remarkable expansion, attracting a total of over 4 000 participants from 52 countries.

This prestigious competition was organized as a tribute to sports and culture, emphasizing the importance of promoting healthy lifestyles, gender equity, and environmental sustainability.

This year's edition encompasses booths featuring products and souvenirs, live music, and a fusion of culture and sports through artistic initiatives involving plastic arts.

The organization of such events is crucial for the global visibility of the city and the nation, fostering sports tourism and encouraging a healthy lifestyle among the population. They also emphasize Cuba as a desirable location for triathlon and other endurance sports. (Source: Prensa Latina)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/376666-details-on-the-9th-havana-triathlon-havana-will-be-announced-this-saturday>

Radio Habana Cuba