Caracas, March 29 (RHC)-- Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla, Cuban Minister of Foreign Affairs, participates this Saturday in the Political Council of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America - People's Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP), which is taking place in Venezuela.

At the 10th meeting, the Cuban foreign minister announced that the event will discuss threats to regional peace, the security of migrants, and imperialist aggression against the peoples of Latin America.

Headquartered at the Antonio José de Sucre Yellow House, the 25th ALBA-TCP Political Council brings together foreign ministers and representatives of member states of the integration platform.

This meeting is the result of the 12th Extraordinary Summit of Heads of State of ALBA-TCP, held earlier this year, the Alliance highlighted in X. (Source: ACN)
