Khan Younis, June 5 (RHC)-- Officials in Gaza say Israeli attacks over the past day have killed at least 95 Palestinians and wounded 440 others. Among the dead are 18 people, including children, killed when Israel bombed a school housing displaced Palestinians in Khan Younis.

The airstrike came hours after Israeli planes dropped leaflets ordering people in Khan Younis to leave their homes and head west.

Alaa Ali: "Honestly, there isn't a single centimeter in the Gaza Strip that's truly safe. But some areas are relatively safer than others. The Israelis call it a safe zone, but in reality it's not. Every day or two, you see them hitting a tent here or a house there, even a person in a car. There's no safe place in this country."

Separately, an Israeli strike hit the roof of an administrative building at the Al-Aqsa Martyrs Hospital in Deir al-Balah, setting off fear and confusion among medical staff and patients.
