Gaza City, June 11 (RHC)-- At least three Palestinian paramedics were killed in Israeli strikes while attempting to rescue wounded families from an Israeli airstrike on a home in Gaza City.

Their names were Hussein Abu Faisal, Wael Al-Attar and Bara Afana.

The journalist Moamen Abu Al-Auf was also killed in that attack — the 227th media worker killed in Gaza over the past 20 months.

This all comes as a U.N. commission says Israeli attacks on Gaza's schools, religious and cultural sites amount to war crimes and crimes against humanity.
