

Boricua Soto led Lotte to Victory in Japanese Baseball

Neftalí Soto

Tokyo, Jun 12 (PL) Puerto Rican Neftalí Soto led Lotte Marines to a 5-4 win over Hiroshima Carp in the Japan Baseball League, hitting 4-2, with a home run, a run scored, and two runs batted in.

For the defeated team, the Dominican Sandro Fabián, also played 4-2, with one run scored.

Meanwhile, Venezuelans Anderson Espinoza and Andres Machado, and Dominican Luis Perdomo, combined to give Orix Buffaloes the 4x2 success against Bay Stars.

Espinoza allowed only two runs and four singles in seven innings, with five strikeouts and one walk, and his teammates completed the job without major incidents, in the case of Machado to score his eleventh Game Saved.

There were also good pitching performances by Panamanian Alberto Baldonado and Cuban Raidel Martínez for the Yomiuri Giants, and by Mexican Roberto Osuna for the SoftBank Falcons, all of whom were unblemished in an episode of work in the 0-0 tie between the two teams.

Finally, the Dominican Oscar Gonzalez closed with 4-2, with a homerun, a run scored, and an RBI in the victory of his Rakuten Eagles against Chunichi Dragons 4x0.
