Israel and the United States are dragging humanity into unforeseeable consequences with the Zionist aggression against Iran

Havana, June 19 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel has called, via the social media platform X, for international mobilizations to maintain world peace.

"Israel and the United States are dragging humanity into unforeseeable consequences with the Zionist aggression against Iran," the president wrote.

"I urgently call for international mobilization to act together and prevent an international conflict or nuclear threat in time," he emphasized on the platform.
