

Expocaribe International Fair begins in Santiago de Cuba

Image not found or type unknown

Expocaribe International Fair begins in Santiago de Cuba

Havana, June 23 (RHC) The Expocaribe International Fair begins today in the city of Santiago de Cuba, bringing together delegates from 35 nations and approximately 1,800 exhibitors from 300 companies.

Meanwhile, the island will be represented by 235 state-owned companies and 51 private companies from all provinces.

The fair will start with some 331 participation contracts – 32 percent more than during the previous edition – and will feature the Made in Cuba event, focusing on the promotion of products with export potential.

Expocaribe's agenda will focus on the transformation of the island's energy infrastructure, multi-destination tourism, healthcare, food, transportation, artificial intelligence, and networking. (Source: CubaSí)

Radio Habana Cuba