

PSG Knocks Inter Miami Out of the Way in Club World Cup

Image not found or type unknown

Paris Saint-Germain

Havana, Jun 29 (RHC) The round of 16 of the FIFA Club World Cup kicked off with Paris Saint-Germain (PSG) showing its class as European champion today by beating Inter Miami 4-0 in the U.S. city of Atlanta.

With a brace from Joao Neves, a goal from Achraf Hakimi and an own goal from Tomás Avilés, PSG scored four times to put Lionel Messi's Inter out of the competition.

Now the Parisian eleven, coached by Luis Enrique, will stay in Atlanta for their Club World Cup quarter-final on July 5, against Bayern Munich, who defeated Flamengo 4-2 in the other match of the day

Source: Prensa Latina

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/386186-psg-knocks-inter-miami-out-of-the-way-in-club-world-cup>

Radio Habana Cuba