

Cuba and The United States to Hold Talks in Havana on Monday

Havana, Mar 14, (RHC), – Delegations from Cuba and the United States will meet in Havana on March 16 on issues related to the reestablishment of bilateral diplomatic relations in tune with the accords reached during the second round of talks between both delegations held February 15 in Washington.

A statement by the director of Bilateral Affairs at the United States Division of the Cuban Foreign Ministry explains that the Cuban delegation will be headed by the general director for The United States at the Foreign Ministry Josefina Vidal, while Assistant Secretary of State for Western Hemispheric Affairs, Roberta Jacobson, will head the delegation from her country.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/49337-cuba-and-the-united-states-to-hold-talks-in-havana-on-monday>

Radio Habana Cuba