

Cuban Foreign Minister Meets with French President

Paris, April 21 (RHC) -- French President François Hollande met on Tuesday with Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez, who pays an official visit to France as part of a broader European tour.

According to a Cuban diplomatic source, Hollande and Rodríguez held a constructive dialogue and reiterated their mutual willingness to advance bilateral relations and cooperation in all areas.

The Cuban foreign minister was also scheduled to meet his French counterpart, Laurent Fabius, and will hold a joint press briefing following the meeting.

The meetings come ahead of a programmed visit to Cuba in May by President François Hollande, the first ever by a French head of state to the Caribbean island.
