

Russian Foreign Minister Highlights Bilateral Economic Forum at Meeting with Cuban Vice President

Moscow, April 23 (RHC) – Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov considered as successful and very productive the intergovernmental session for economic, trade and scientific cooperation between Cuba and Russia, held recently in the city of Kazan.

Lavrov made the remarks during a meeting at the headquarters of the Russian Foreign Ministry in Moscow, with the Cuban Vice President of the Council of Ministers, Ricardo Cabrisas.

Lavrov also praised the strengthening of bilateral relations and economic partnership, in compliance with agreements signed in previous encounters.

For his part, Cabrisas echoed Lavrov's satisfaction with the results of the recent meeting on cooperation, and talked about new opportunities for joint economic projects.

Cabrisas also highlighted that during the latest intergovernmental session, a total of 10 documents were signed, including bilateral agreements, a contract and several memorandums of understanding.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/53712-russian-foreign-minister-highlights-bilateral-economic-forum-at-meeting-with-cuban-vice-president>

Radio Habana Cuba