

Cuban Interests Section in Washington D.C. Reestablishes Full Consular Services

Washington, May 22 (RHC) — The Cuban Interests Section in Washington D.C. announced the resumption of its banking services, which will guarantee the normal performance of that entity and will allow to offer full consular services.

Cuban and U.S. citizens or other nationalities residing in the United States who require consular services can now make their arrangements through the agencies that maintain contracts with the consular office of the Cuban Interests Section, or directly at its headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The Cuban Interests Section's consular services were affected for over a year due to the lack of a U.S. bank that would manage its account, as a result of the measures imposed by Washington's hostile policy on Cuba.
