

U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham Launches Republican Presidential Bid

Washington, June 2 (RHC)-- On the campaign trail in the United States, South Carolina Republican Senator Lindsey Graham has entered the presidential race. Graham launched his campaign Monday with a warning about "radical Islam ... running wild."

Senator Lindsey Graham's campaign launch comes just days after fellow Republican presidential hopeful Senator Rand Paul blamed Graham and other "hawks" in the Republican Party for the existence of the self-proclaimed Islamic State.
